

OCA Update - Consultative Ballot

Unite has been in negotiations with the OCA employers. These negotiations have now concluded and a revised offer brokered by ACAS has now been put to you the members to decide.

An information pack has been posted to home addresses and emailed. This will detail the revised offer and include a Unique ID code which you will need to vote.

Unite intends to take all steps to ensure our members are clear and aware of the discussions concluded with the assistance of ACAS, and on the basis, and against the current economic background, the revised offer is being recommended by Unite Offshore workplace reps and Unite Regional officers.

If you wish clarification on any points on the offer then please contact the relevant Unite regional officer. (See over page for contact details)
